

Malaysia's Sustainable Finance Journey

Promod Dass
Deputy Group CEO, RAM Holdings Berhad
[www.ram.com.my]
E-mail: promod@ram.com.my

Turning Ripples into a Sustainable Finance Wave

Malaysia's sustainable finance landscape has strengthened since 2022

Growing regulatory clarity and ecosystem maturity

Collaboration across regulators, industry, and innovators driving momentum

Asian Capital Markets Roundtable 2026

Unlocking the Potential of Capital Markets in Asia for a Sustainable and Resilient Future

Thursday, January 29, 2026 The Okura Prestige Tower, 2F Orchard Room Tokyo

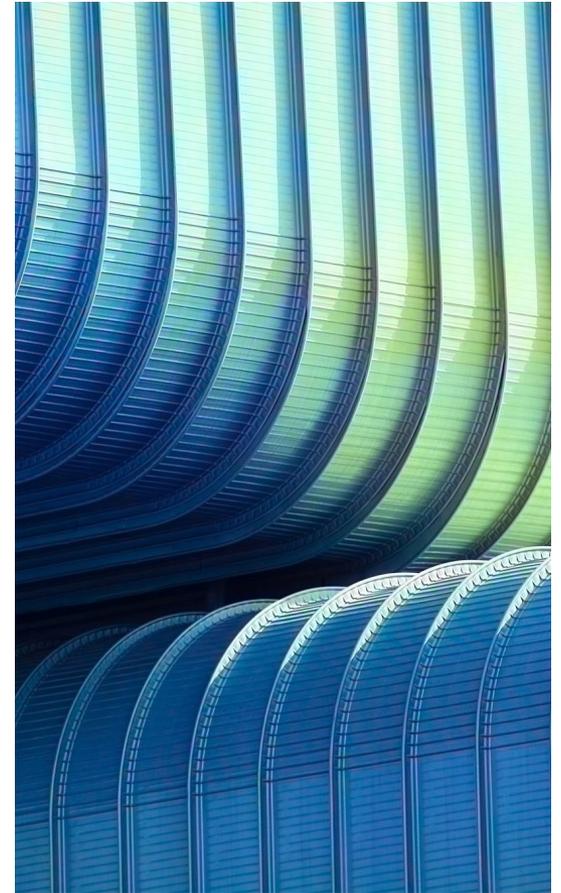

Key Forces Shaping Progress

Momentum · Knowledge Exchange ·
Collaboration

- Stronger frameworks and market participation since 2022

- Nomura Foundation's / ICMA's support accelerating insights and best practices

- Multi-stakeholder collaboration central to achieving net-zero goals

Regulatory Vision and Imperatives

Net-Zero 2050 Commitment
Anchoring the Financial System

- Securities Commission: upcoming Capital Market Masterplan 4
- Bank Negara Malaysia: Financial Sector Blueprint 2022–2026
- JC3: Coordinated climate-risk and transition finance ecosystem
- Regulatory alignment builds trust, consistency, and investor confidence

Frameworks Strengthening Credibility

Actionable Tools for Sustainable and Transition Finance

- SRI Sukuk & Bond Framework
- National Sustainability Reporting Framework (IFRS S1 & S2 alignment)
- CCPT taxonomy & VBI for Islamic finance
- JC3 Sustainable & Transition Finance Guidance
- Incentives, carbon markets, and capacity-building strengthening adoption

The Road Ahead Beyond 2026

- Expanding Ambition and Regional Leadership
- Biodiversity and nature-related criteria (TNFD alignment)
- Scaling transition finance for hard-to-abate sectors
- Digital ESG platforms for disclosure and verification
- ASEAN harmonisation to position Malaysia as a regional sustainable finance leader

